3. Other conditions of participation

Participation is only possible in person during the embedded world 2020 trade fair. By participating in the competition, the participant agrees to the rules of the competition.

4. Determination of profit & participation period

The competition runs from February 25th. - 27.02.2020, whereby each day represents its own competition and awards its own prizes independently. The participation period begins at 9:00 a.m. and ends at 2:59 p.m. The winner of the day will be determined via a random draw at 3:00 p.m. in Hall 2, Stand 241.

5. Profit

A total of 3 main prizes will be awarded, with each day representing a prize that will only be announced on the corresponding day. The daily winners will be informed directly at 3:00 p.m. at the random draw.

The consolation prizes will be given directly after participation.

6. Notification of the winners

If the drawn winner is not personally present at the drawing, another random drawing will take place. Only those who are present at the drawing are eligible to win.

The winners will be notified directly at the daily random draw.

7. Transmission of the profit

The winner receives a voucher for a Developer Kit and a UNIGATE IC / IC2 of their choice. The voucher must be redeemed by April 2nd, 2020.

8. Termination options

Deuschmann Automation GmbH & Co. KG reserves the right to cancel or end the competition at any time without notice. This applies in particular if, for any reason, the competition cannot run according to plan, which influences the administration, security, integrity and / or regular and proper execution of the competition. In such cases, Deuschmann Automation GmbH & Co. KG also has the right to modify the competition at its discretion.

9. Data protection

Personal data is required to enter the competition. The participant expressly agrees that the data transmitted by him for the implementation and execution of the competition, processed and passed on to Deuschmann Automation. The participant also agrees that he may receive messages in connection with the Deuschmann Automation company on the email he has deposited. In the event of a cancellation, the participant will be excluded from the competition.

The entire data protection guidelines can be found at <https://www.deuschmann.de/en/privacy/> .

10. Legal process and liability

The judges' decision is final. There is no enforceable right to receive the winnings. Deuschmann Automation GmbH & Co. KG is not liable for the loss, the delay, the change, the manipulation and / or the misdirection of emails and / or data when entering, recording or transferring data.

11. Severability clause

Should individual provisions of the conditions of participation become ineffective or unenforceable, the remaining provisions remain unaffected. In such a case, organizers and participants are obliged to cooperate in the creation of provisions that achieve a result that is economically as close as possible to the ineffective provision.
